VICTORIA INDUSTRIES.

T. B. Pearson & Co., Manufacturers of Shirts, Underclothing, Overalls, &c.

A Rapidly Expanding Trade—Eastern Competition Defied—How It Is Done.

Wandering down Yates street in search of industries we called at No. 30, where we found manufacturers of ready made clothing, shirts, underwear, &c. We found the partners in the firm, Mr. T. B. Pearson and Mr. J. Piercy busy filling some country orders; however, on explaining our mission they readily agreed to admit us into the sublime mysteries of the process of manufacture of ready made clothing, shirts, etc. The process of cutting was fully explained and illustrated by Mr. Pearson, at one of the many cutting tables in operation. Armed with a formidable looking knife, something like a Japanese executioner's sword, and disdaining the use of shears, Mr. Pearson deftly carved out dozens of garments at one slash, with the ease and grace of a performing magician. The material was laid on the table, the size and pattern adjusted, a cut of the knife, and, presto! the job was done. There appeared to be little or no waste of material, and pants, shirts, jumpers, ready for the machine stitching were hewn out by the score at a time. A novel machine was shown for fastening on the garment the new English patent moveable button.

T. B. PEARSON & CO.,

THE MATERIAL USED,

in the manufacture is the best of the various grades obtained direct from the mills in England, grey flannel and unbleached cotton goods coming from Montreal. An examination of the stock of stuff on hand shewed they were of a superior quality, and consisted of tweeds, jeans, duck, cotton, melton cloth, diagonal cloths, material for ladies' jackets, &c. Pearson & Co. commenced business some five years ago in small premises on Langley street, and the fast increasing demand for their goods forced them to forsake the old retired quarters for the imposing building they now occupy, specially prepared for them by Mr. Gilmore, on Johnson street, on a lease of five years. The lower flat is occupied as a ware and storeroom, while from the second flat comes the clitter-clatter, whirr and buzz of many sewing machines. When the firm in the short space of eighteen hours turned out ninety suits of duck for C Battery a few days ago, it is needless to dwell on the capacity of the factory. This fact speaks for itself and comment is needless. When in full work, which is in winter, preparing for

THE SPRING TRADE,

they employ from 60 to 75 hands, almost always working over time. At present there are from 30 to 45 employed constantly. The goods principally manufactured are special lines of tweed shirts and underclothing for the mining and logging camps, and tweed pants. In flannel shirts, Pearson & Piercy defy competition from Montreal or any other eastern point, while in other lines of goods they can fairly compete with their eastern rivals. If success is the outcome of push, energy, enterprize and good business capacity, then the firm of Pearson & Co. must succeed. Mr. Pearson has had a life-long experience in the dry goods and clothing manufacturing in England and Canada, while his partner, Mr. Piercy can boast of an experience in the same line at home and in all the colonies. They largely import also of gents furnishing goods, and conduct their business on strictly wholesale principles. They export largely throughout the province and talk of invading the special domain of the eastern houses on at no distant day. If any manufacturing business of Victoria succeeds that of Pearson & Co. will. Experience, tact, management and a determination to push the trade of the concern, even unto the uttermost parts of the earth, with their flag bearing the motto "Excelsior." Pearson & Co. will be in the near future classed with the merchant princes of Victoria, a credit to themselves and the city of their adoption.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE ROCKIES

As a manufactory of the staff of life,

THE VICTORIA STEAM BISCUIT AND BREAD FACTORY

of Mr. M. R. Smith deserves a well merited notice. On presenting ourselves we were very graciously received by the proprietor, who kindly afforded every opportunity to inspect the modus operandi of bread and biscuit making as carried on in this extensive establishment. The large bake house in rear of the shop premises on Fort street, was found to contain all the necessary appliances for turning out that excellent article of daily consumption as supplied by this factory. A fact well known to many readers of THE TIMES is that the commodity is sweet, wholesome and of full weight. The premises were clean, and showed that every care was taken by the proprietor to ensure the celebrity of the quality of bread. Adjourning to the biscuit factory in rear of the warehouse, a little further down the street, we were shown and had explained the uses and working of the several machines for turning out the various classes of biscuit goods. Here was an upright boiler with 6 horse power engine for supplying the motive power to the mixer, breaker, cutting machine and cake machine. The dough, after being moistened in the trough, is placed with with other ingredients, shortening and flavoring, in the mixer, where it undergoes a thorough blending. It is then taken to the breaker, where it is rolled and rolled over and over again and turned out in flat sheets. Placed in the cutting machine the stuff receives the form and impressions in which they come on the table. The working of the latter is ingenious, and as the biscuits thus formed leaves the machine they fall upon a continuous apron and are conveyed to the pans, placed in the large ovens alongside, coming out after a short confinement those delicious crisp morsels we delight in munching, whether it be at lunch, afternoon tea or a picnic. Owing to the

for the widely celebrated goods of the Victoria Steam Biscuit and Bread Factory, it has become imperative to look out for larger premises, consequently it will be a pleasure to announce, at no distant day, that an extensive factory has been opened by Mr. Smith in another locality, where biscuits will be turned out in quantities hitherto deemed almost impossible. The machinery and plant for the new factory are en route from Montreal and are expected to arrive in a few days. There are from ten to thirteen hands employed by the firm, and the annual output for the year ending 30th of June last was in the neighborhood of $75,000. Besides a large local city trade, the firm supplies by contract the Royal Navy and C Battery with the staff of life, and have always given satisfaction to the naval and military authorities. There is a large export to the provincial markets of Smith's celebrated biscuits of the various kinds, and a fast increasing business compels the firm to increase their power of production. The flour used is principally the celebrated Ogilvie's Strong Bakers from Winnipeg Mills, mixed with Oregon and California flour. The Manitoba flour turns out an article unrivalled in the world of bread and biscuit. The excellence of our native flour, as supplied by the Spallumcheen mills, was highly spoken of. The proprietor, Mr M R Smith, came from London, Ontario, where he served his time, and settled in Victoria in 1858 opening out in a comparatively small way in premises on Yates street. Industry, enterprise and a desire to elevate the art of bread making to the excellence it has attained under his able management, enables Mr. Smith to point with pride to the fast increasing business of the present day. He is ably assisted in the business by his son, a young gentleman whom we found conversant with the details of the business and fully alive to the wants of the hour. Moss does not grow either on the backs or under the feet of Smith and son. As a thriving industry it is one of which Victoria may well feel proud.

MR. DUNCAN'S PREVARICATIONS.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—The Geo. W. Elder called at Port Chester, alias Metlakahtla, on her trip up. While there Mr. Duncan held services and, as usual on similar occasions, was eloquent in declaiming against the persecution his Indians had received from the B. C. Government. He stated that the Indians were not permitted to remove their cooking utensils, household effects, etc, and had left over $50,000 worth. He likewise said that when he went to Fort Simpson the Indians were cannibals. A collection was taken up which resulted in a profit of $60. A few months ago a number of the Metlakahtlans here died. I asked one of the principal men what inducements were held out to them to cause their exodus from British Columbia. He said that Mr Duncan informed the Indians that the President had given him Annette and the adjacent Islets. It was impossible to convince him to the contrary. An old chestnut was formerly told in British Columbia of a witness in a suit before Judge Begbie. The evidence was rather crooked. The Judge sternly addressed him thus: "Stop your prevarications and tell the truth." The witness replied: "Judge, how can I help varicating; I've lost my eye tooth." No moral WRANGEL.

GEN. MIDDLETON TALKS

About the Skeena Matter and Other Subjects.

Lieutenant-General Middleton said to a reporter of the Star that if there was to be serious trouble on the Skeena the seventy men sent up there would be entirely inadequate. If the trouble was of little consequence there would be far too many of them. He expressed it as his personal opinion that the law by which magistrates could call on the military to aid the civil authorities in keeping order was rather loose, for, according to the newspaper reports, these magistrates in British Columbia would really have the power to begin an Indian war. When asked if in case of serious trouble he would direct the movement of the troops from Ottawa or go to the front himself, he replied, with eyes that fairly flashed fire: "No, sir, I'll go where I am most wanted. I am not in the habit of directing the movements of my troops from Ottawa." The General will shortly leave for British Columbia on a tour of inspection.

FRENCH UNFRIENDLINESS.

London, Aug. 1—The full text of Premier Crispi's dispatches concerning the Massowah disputes has been published. The dispatches assert that the deliberate and habitual unfriendliness of France toward Italy is due to national jealousy. A circular note on the matter is now being prepared by M. Goblet, French minister of foreign affairs.

UNITED STATES NEWS.

SMALLPOX AT SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, Aug. 2—The steamer Arabic arrived from China and Japan last night after a quiet passage of thirteen days and twenty-three hours. She had two smallpox cases on board and will have to remain ten days in quarantine. The following advices are at hand:

The young Emperor's marriage will take place next February.

In Hongkong 137 persons died of cholera in the week ended June 23rd.

Five men were suffocated and eight narrowly escaped death by fire on the steamer Clan MacIntosh, which arrived in Hongkong on July 4th.

Meagre details of the volcanic eruption of Mount Iwabasti, in Japan, are received. The volcano became active on Sunday morning July 15th, and in a short time fifty-six houses at its base were destroyed. There were about four hundred persons and thirty houses in a village named Bira buried under the sand and ashes thrown out of the volcano. Among those buried were some fifteen visitors at the hot springs in the neighborhood.

Advices from Corea state that the recent excitement in Sarout was caused by a rumor that Corean children were being kidnapped and sold to American missionaries who boiled them for medicines, and which led to the decapitation of nine officers, but fortunately resulted in no harm to any foreigners and in no general ill-will on the part of the natives against foreigners.

The Coreans are greatly excited over the loss of their children, and it is believed foreigners were responsible for their disappearance. On several occasions Coreans walking with their own children in the streets were accused of trying to get away with stolen children, and were brutally murdered in broad daylight by an enraged mob. On the night of June 18th, some thirty Seoul men beset the house of the American missionary, howling for his blood, but the missionary luckily escaped with his wife. On complaint being made to the United States minister on June 19th, he called a meeting of foreign ministers at his legation. Application was made to a foreign man-of-war for help, and the the Russians sent men, and the following morning sixteen more who arrived, armed to the teeth, in small boats at Serout. The Americans sent fifty marines, and next the French sent a force of thirty. On June 19th and 20th, British and German marines and sailors also arrived to guard their chapels. The Corean Government now became seriously alarmed, and being candidly informed by one of the ministers that if they could not keep order and restrain the agitation the foreign governments would have to take measures to do so by keeping an armed force of soldiers on guard themselves, and issued several proclamations to the people. The excitement then calmed down.

THE WHALING SEASON.

San Francisco, Aug. 2—Advices have been received by J. N. Knowles, agent for the Pacific Steam Whaling Company, from the whaling fleet in the North Pacific ocean, stating that so far the catch has been much below the average, only twenty-two whales having been taken up to July 13th. The vessels have encountered much young ice and although many whales have been seen it has been impossible to reach them.

BOILER EXPLODED.

Philadelphia, Aug. 1—A locomotive boiler on the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad exploded last night at Columbia station. The engineer and fireman were instantly killed and five passengers terribly scalded. One will die.

THE ARIZONA INDIANS.

Tucson, Aug. 2—Advices from San Carlos are to the effect that the Indian trouble is simply a feud between two bands, aggravated by a disposition to object to the strict discipline of Captain Bullis the new acting agent. No serious consequences are feared by the citizens, for little or no harm can be done as Gen. Miles has the troops of the department so well disciplined for active service that the renegades could not go far from the reservation before being captured and destroyed.

CHINESE BRUTALITY.

Marysville, Cal., Aug. 2—News reached this city to-day from Linda township, seven miles north of here, of the brutal treatment of a Chinaman by several of his countrymen working in a Chinese garden, which resulted in his death. The Chinaman was accused by his boss with the theft of a sum of money, when he denied the charge. Both his wrists were tied with a rope, and he was strung up for twenty-four hours. He was then cut down, dragged along the levee and left unconscious and terribly injured until death relieved him of his sufferings.

JURY DISAGREED.

Virginia, Nev., Aug. 2—The jury in the case of John L. Black for murdering his brother Samuel, has disagreed. A second trial will commence on the 25th.

TRAIN WRECKED.

Alberquerque, Aug. 2.—The westbound freight train on the Atlantic & Pacific was wrecked near Holbrook last night. The engineer was killed.

BARTLY CAMPBELL'S FUNERAL.

Pittsburg, Aug. 2—The funeral of Bartly Campbell the dramatist, took place this morning at St. Paul's Cathedral, and many people assembled to take the last look.

TRADE DEPRESSION.

Columbia, Pa., Aug. 2—Owing to the uncertainties of tariff legislation and to avoid accumulation of stock on an uncertain market, the Cordelia Iron Co. has blown out its furnace. Two of the Chestnut Hill Iron Ore Company's blast furnaces at Columbia are also idle. Laboring men are idle as a consequence.

A PRIZE FIGHT.

New York, Aug. 2—Frank Murphy, English lightweight champion, and Jack Harlin, of Boston, American champion, fought this morning on the Hudson, not far from Veiplank Point, for $1,000 a side. Murphy weighed 117 pounds; Harlin weighed 118. After 49 rounds the referee declared a draw. Both men were pretty badly punished.

DIED TOGETHER.

Pittsburg, Aug 2—Chas. B. Knight, a Pullman car conductor, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and Mary Patton, registered as husband and wife at the Metropolitan Hotel at 4 o'clock this morning. At 9 o'clock two pistol shots were heard in their room. The door being forced open, Knight was found dead on the floor with a bullet in his head. Miss Patton was dead in bed with a pistol in one hand and a small mirror in the other and a bullet in the head. Letters written by Patton, addressed to James Taggart, Burmingham, Pa., were found, saying she was tired of life and would have told him all about this man but was afraid.

A WRECKED CREW.

San Francisco, Aug. 2—The barkentine City of Papute arrived from Tahiti this morning carrying the crew of the schooner Don Leon, which was wrecked near Marquess Islands, in the latter part of April. The schooner was bound this port and together with her cargo was worth about $10,000.

OUR MILITIA OFFICERS.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—Can you or your "Town Major" inform the public why an Imperial army officer was engaged in drilling a body of Canadian militia on Tuesday evening last, its own officers being on parade. As an observer, I should think the militia officers would be only too glad of an opportunity to drill and become accustomed to the various orders to be given. I was assured by a looker-on that the services of Lieut. Lang had been accused owing to the absence of Colonel Prior at Skeena river. From this it must be concluded that the dashing Colonel has no subordinate who is competent to accord command of a brigade which certainly is a sad state for our defenders to be in. A time may come when the militia are required to preserve order to go on active service and then if no friendly Imperial officer be at hand to command, what will be done? Something is surely wrong that requires righting. WATCHMAN.

THE LIBRARY.

The passage of the library by-law ensures the permanent establishment of a library in Victoria. The books, now in packing cases in the police court room at the city hall, number about four thousand volumes, and will form the nucleus of a library which can be enlarged from time to time as the funds of the corporation and the philantropy of our citizens will permit. The success of a free library will depend very largely upon two or three things. The rooms must be central and readily accessible; and they must also be roomy, well lighted and ventilated. The librarian will require to have some knowledge of the duties of his position, and to be at least moderately conversant with the literature on the shelves of the library. Added to this, a suavity of manner and an obliging and painstaking disposition, will be in keeping with his surroundings and contribute very considerably to make the library and reading room a popular and profitable resort. The council can make or mar the library by either appointing a capable or an incapable man to the charge. The management of the library might be delegated to a board of directors, appointed by the council, of which the Mayor would be ex-officio chairman, this board to have the selection of a librarian and entire control. It will be better that responsibility should be placed upon the shoulders of those who take a warm personal interest in such matters, and not upon a committee of the council, the members of which are selected by the people for purely municipal work.

BEHRING SEA MATTER.

A report from Ottawa states that the American Government has at length consented to refer to arbitration the claims for compensation presented on behalf of the Canadian sealers seized in Behring Sea by its revenue cutter. It is, we believe, scarcely correct to say, as some of the papers are doing, that this shows the Government of the United States to have withdrawn its claim to exclusive jurisdiction in the waters of Behring Sea. As a matter of fact, it does not appear that any such claim has ever been implied in the acts complained of. So far as has been made public, the diplomatic attitude of President CLEVELAND's Administration has been non-commital in the affair. Its policy has been one of reticence and delay, rather than of refusal. Such a policy may have been prompted either by the exigencies of the present political situation, or by regard to the time limit of the agreement said to have been made with the Alaska Company, in whose interests the seizures have been made. Color is given to the former supposition by the fact that, assuming the correctness of the Ottawa report, the Presidential contest will almost certainly be over before the earliest period at which there is any reason to suppose the decision of the arbitrators could be made known. On the other hand, it is not easy to credit that part of the rumor which ascribes the tardy consent to arbitration to the alleged purpose of the British Government to resort to the strong measure of commissioning a warship to recapture and release any Canadian craft which might hereafter be seized by the United States cutters outside the three mile limit. It is very unlikely that the British Government would put forward any such threat at this stage of the negotiations—a threat which could only have the effect of making it trebly difficult for President CLEVELAND and his Cabinet to do the right.

AN INCONGRUITY.

The difficulty with the British Columbia Indians, a Toronto contemporary points out, seems to be an awkward anomaly in the working of the Canadian Constitution. The British North American Act places the Dominion Government under obligation to continue towards the Canadian Indians the same just and liberal policy which was pursued by the British Government under the colonial system. To the Central Authority must necessarily belong the treaty-making power, so far as any portion of its own subjects are concerned. But, on the other hand, any reservations which may be set apart for the tribes by such treaties become the property of the province in which they are situated. The tendency of such an arrangement must be to create a division both of interest and of authority between the Dominion and Local Governments. The one makes the bargains, the other has, so far, to carry out the stipulations and foot the bills. A somewhat similar incongruity has been developed in regard to several other subjects of legislation. The Dominion Parliament passed the Canada Temperance Act, and the Provincial authorities were made responsible for its enforcement. A Dominion Minister has recently taken the same position, it is said, with regard to the Bucket Shops Act of last session. Such complications are undesirable. It is surely a sound maxim that the power which makes the law should provide the machinery and assume the responsibility for its enforcement. Any other arrangement seems inconsistent with the federal principle. In regard to such points the Constitution surely needs some revision.

GOLD IN MICHIGAN.

People without large capital need not rush to Michigan, because of the rumors that a vein of rich gold quartz has been discovered at Ishpeming. Even if it turns out to be all that is now represented, it will be found not to be the place for poor men. The ground all around the mines is owned by strong corporations, who will not be in a hurry to part with it until its value is fully ascertained, and then depend upon it, they will not "sell their hen in a rainy day." Besides if a portion of the ground was acquired, a large amount of capital would be required to properly work the mine, just as was found necessary in the case of the Comstock lode of Nevada. Many, however, seriously doubt whether this is really a lode which has been discovered at Ishpeming, Mich. During the last three years pockets of rich ore have certainly been found on the same ground, but then all of them very soon pinched out. Now it is reported that the vein widens as it goes down, but, be this as it may, a good deal of exploration will be necessary before any reliable conclusion can be arrived at regarding the endurance of the vein. Nothing can in the meantime be taken for granted. All that is definitely known as yet is the fact of small bodies of paying ore having been found in Lake Superior region. Yet who knows what a proper exploration may reveal. As yet the ground may be said to have been only scratched on the surface, as the shaft from which the new ore is alleged to have been obtained is only 22 feet deep, and will have to be sunk to at least double that depth before anything very definite or reliable can be ascertained.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Goldwin Smith has arrived at Winnipeg and is expected in Victoria in a few days. Mr. Smith was the ablest advocate in Canada of unrestricted reciprocity, and could easily be induced, we are inclined to think, to speak upon that subject during his stay in the city. The members of our Imperial Federation League would take a deep interest in Mr. Smith's presentation of the subject, as the proposition to have closer trade relations with the United States, although antagonistic to the object of the federationists, must have an important bearing upon the case and upon the future of Canada. It is to be hoped, therefore, that an invitation will be extended to Mr. Smith to explain the commercial union platform and prove if he can where federation is impractical. We want more light on both questions.

The main object of the Mills' Tariff Bill, which is now before the United States Senate, is to prevent a further accumulation of the surplus. That surplus now amounts to $130,000,000, and it is under the present tariff increasing at the rate of $9,000,000 a month. The Mills tariff will by lowering the taxes on the necessaries and comforts of the people take $50,000,000 off the revenue, and it will by putting on the free list raw materials of manufacture and other articles of prime necessity reduce the surplus by $20,000,000 more. It is expected to reduce the average duty from $47.10 on every $100 of imports to $42.49. It can be seen from this how very far the Mills tariff is from being a free trade tariff.

One of the Shetland Islands is shortly to be sold—Foula, second in size of the group, and the one situated farthest west and which is supposed by some to have been the Ultima Thule of the Romans. The island is three miles long and two broad, and is famous for its wild and rocky coasts. The wild fowl which resort to the place in great numbers may make it attractive to the wealthy sportsman with plenty of spending money, otherwise the sale of the island will likely be a difficult operation. One of the charms put forward on behalf of Foula is its fifteen miles distance from a telegram, so that the harrassed man of affairs can find a haven of rest.

The Hohenzollern line is strengthened by the arrival of another possible heir to the throne, born to the wife of Emperor William. In spite of the recent ill-luck of the family in losing its head member twice within the past four months, the direct line is in no danger of extinction. The Emperor has four sons, William, Frederick, Adalbert and the new arrival, the eldest being six years old in May. Prince Henry, the Emperor's brother, is the only other living male descended from the old Emperor.

The Ottawa Journal assigns as a reason for countermanding the instructions to the government steamer which had been placed at the disposal of the Fishery Inspector to explore the cod banks of the North, that the Sir James Douglas was required for special service in connection with the Indian Department.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Final Passage of the By-Laws—General Business.

The City Council held their regular meeting last night at 8 o'clock. Present His Worship Mayor Grant, Ald. Powell, Coughlan, Kelly, Wilson, Styles, Harris, Penwill.

Minutes of previous meeting read and on motion adopted.

COMMUNICATIONS

From W. K. Bull, returning officer, announcing the result of the election on by-laws. Received and spread upon the minutes.

From J. P. Elford, asking for a portion of Johnson and Douglas streets for building purposes. Granted.

From five property owners on Wharf street calling attention to the defective drain on Wharf street near Fort street. Referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

From W. T. Drake, stating that he paid a sum for pipes in 1885 which were taken away and he considered that he was entitled to compensation. He also called attention to the dumping of garbage near his residence which is creating a nuisance.

Ald. Wilson said a motion was made some time ago to place notices on the dumping ground. This was not done and the Alderman would like to know the reason why the motion was not carried out.

Ald. Vigelius said he passed over the ground last week and found nothing offensive. Referred to Sanitary and Water Committee.

From W. Atkins stating that his fence on Dallas Road was torn down by the contractor and complaining of the way the contract on Montreal street is being carried out. Referred to Street Committee.

From eleven residents of Rock Bay Avenue complaining of the inadequate supply of water in the locality. Referred to Water Committee and Water Commissioner.

From J. C. Bales and G. A. Bargison asking for the sum of $500 for services performed and stating that the audit will be completed in two weeks.

His Worship said the legal adviser gave his opinion that the Council should pass a by-law before any payment can be made to these gentlemen. It would be right to introduce a by-law at this meeting.

Ald. Coughlan said it was unnecessary to pass a by-law. The auditors are not permanent officials and it was not necessary to pass by-laws to pay employees engaged temporarily.

His Worship read from the municipality act to show that the Council has power to pass a sum to audit the books which does not cover an examination of the books such as is going on at present. It would be as well to pass a by-law and make the expenditure legal.

Ald. Vigelius said, as a member of the Finance Committee he would like to know how he should act in the matter. No account was handed in, and the question of paying these gentlemen was reported on by the City Barrister, and he gave a decision which should be acted upon.

His Worship stated that he would not sanction the payment of the money until the requirements of the law are carried out. The gentlemen were entitled to payment for their services, but the proper course should be carried out.

Ald. Coughlan said he thought the Finance Committee could interview the legal advisers and pay the money when they are informed by those gentlemen that the bill can be paid legally without a by-law.

His Worship said he was willing to do anything in a legal manner, but His Worship would refuse to sign a cheque if he was satisfied that it was not correct.

The matter was referred to the Finance Committee with power to act.

From W G Cameron, asking for permission to leave a sign on Johnson street. Referred to the Street Committee and City Surveyor.

From Charles Hayward referring to the price of tension rods for James Bay bridge. He also asked for an extension of time.

His Worship—Was Mr. Hayward furnished with a copy of the plans and specifications?

The Clerk—Yes, Your Worship, and Mr. Mallendaine was engaged to make a copy of them.

Ald Vigelius moved that Mr. Hayward be given until one month from date to complete the work.

Ald Wilson—Give him until next Christmas.

His Worship said the people of James Bay are complaining. Mr. Hayward wishes, no doubt, to complete the work; but there are other contractors who should be considered.

Ald Powell would second the motion provided Mr. Hayward completed the contract in one month from the time the contract should have been completed. Motion carried.

From T. Storey for permission to use a portion of Fort and Douglas streets for building purposes. Request granted.

From G. H. Moore for permission to use a portion of Cormorant street, between Government and Store streets for building purposes. Granted.

From Senator McDonald for permission to open Commercial street for constructing a drain. Granted, subject to the usual conditions.

ACCOUNTS

For the month ending July 31st amounting to $2,871.19 were ordered to be paid if found correct.

BY-LAWS.

The Johnson street, Water Works and Library By-Laws were read a third time and passed.

REPORTS.

The Street Committee recommended that Messrs. Turner, Beeton & Co. be permitted to erect a footpath connecting their wharves. Report adopted.

The Fire Wardens recommended that Mr. Burris be ordered to remove a building on Government street which he received permission to erect for the purpose of testing his building material. If the building is not removed in ten days the committee recommended that the Fire Department be called out to remove it. Report adopted.

From the Superintendent of Police regarding the condition of the force. Referred to Police Committee.

NOTICE OF MOTION.

Ald. Harris moved that the City Clerk prepare debentures for the sum of $50,000, for sanitary and water works purposes.

Ald. Styles gave notice of a motion to alter by-law No. 157.

Ald. Harris thought it would be proper to prepare plans and specifications for the sewerage system. Commissioners should be appointed for such work as this, and although he was willing to assist in pushing the thing on, the people could hardly expect Councillors to do the work of paid officers. The present City Surveyor is overworked, and it would be more satisfactory to place a Commissioner in charge.

Ald. Vigelius would like to see the work done by day labor. A number of men would receive work, and their pay would be insured. Since the work on James Bay bridge, he had changed his opinion regarding contract work.

Ald. Styles thought the water works should be done by day labor.

His Worship advised the Council to pay the debt of the old library. The debt was $450 and that amount should be paid at once.

Ald. Vigelius moved that the debt be paid if found correct. Seconded by Ald. Wilson and carried.

The Council adjourned until Monday evening when the Sewerage By-Law will be considered.

KOOTENAY NEWS.

Indian Rumors—The Police Detained—Interesting Personal News.

News from the southern boundary line was of such an alarming nature that Major Steele deemed it expedient that the Troop should remain here pending Inspector Wood's return from Flat Head Lake, where he had gone to investigate Indian rumors of trouble. On his return Col. Herchmier and Major Steele started at once for the boundary line, where careful enquiry will be made as to the reports that come in from time to time to Fort Steele. Before leaving Col. Herchmier carefully inspected the troop and expressed himself highly pleased with the men's appearance and the way in which they performed their duties. His inspection was thorough, going minutely into everything connected with the Troop. He complimented Major Steele on the efficiency of the men, and also expressed satisfaction at the good conduct of the men during their stay in Kootenay, and was glad to find that they had earned the good wishes of the residents of the district. It is likely Col. Herchmier will go through the Crow's Nest Pass with the Troop. The consensus of opinion here is, that the Local Government is very blamable in allowing the troop to leave, and by so doing jeopardizing the lives of the settlers in the district. The whole matter demands a thorough and searching investigation, and will be had as soon as both parliaments meet. The troop is still at Four Mile Creek and will move from that point when orders are given to march.

We are experiencing a very warm spell, something very unusual for this district.

The future sanitarium of British Columbia, viz., Fairmont Hot Springs, is attracting a great deal of notice. Quite a number of invalids have been staying there during the season and more are expected daily.

Lord Norbury is at Finlay Creek, where he has mining interests with Messrs. Cochrane and Brady.

The following are expected in August: Lieutenant Cochrane and Lady Adele Cochrane, Lord and Lady St. Maur, Dr. Minor and party from Seattle, Captain Cookson and party from England.

A postoffice will be opened at Fort Steele on the 1st of August with Mr. Charles Clark as postmaster.

Col. Baker has gone to Winnipeg.

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body; and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until with a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

three bottles of this medicine I have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky. tf

WILL O' THE MILL.

BY ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

"I have been thinking about this marriage," he began.

"So have I," she answered. "And I respect you more and more for a very wise man. You understood me better than I understood myself, and I am now quite certain that things are all for the best as they are."

"At the same time"——ventured Will.

"You must be tired," she interrupted. "Take a seat and let me fetch you a glass of wine. The afternoon is so warm, and I wish you not to be displeased with your visit. You must come quite often; once a week if you can spare the time; I am always so glad to see my friends."

"O, very well," thought Will to himself. "It appears I was right after all." And he paid a very agreeable visit, walked home again in capital spirits and gave himself no further concern about the matter.

For nearly three years Will and Marjory continued on these terms, seeing each other once or twice a week without any word of love between them; and for all that time I believe Will was nearly as happy as a man can be. He rather stinted himself the pleasure of seeing her; and he would often walk half way over to the parsonage, and then back again, as if to whet his appetite. Indeed there was one corner of the road, whence he could see the church spire wedged into a crevice of the valley between sloping firwoods, with a triangular snatch of plain by way of background, which he greatly affected as a place to sit and moralize in before returning homeward; and the peasants got so much into the habit of finding him there in the twilight that they gave it the name of "Will o' the Mill's corner."

At the end of the three years Marjory played him a sad trick by suddenly marrying somebody else. Will kept his countenance bravely, and merely remarked that, for as little as he knew of women, he had acted very prudently in not marrying her himself three years before. She plainly knew very little of her own mind, and, in spite of a deceptive manner, was as fickle and flighty as the rest of them. He had to congratulate himself on an escape, he said, and would take a higher opinion of his own wisdom in consequence. But at bent, he was reasonably displeased, moped a good deal for a month or two, and fell away in flesh, to the astonishment of his sorrowing lady.

It was perhaps a year after this marriage that Will was awakened late one night by the sound of a horse galloping on the road, followed by precipitate knocking at the inn door. He opened his window and saw a farm servant, mounted and holding a led horse by the bridle, who told him to make what haste he could and go along with him; for Marjory was dying, and had sent urgently to fetch him to her bedside. Will was no horseman, and made so little speed upon the way that the poor young wife was very near her end before he arrived. But they had some minutes' talk in private, and he was present and wept very bitterly while she breathed her last.

DEATH.

Year after year went away into nothing, with great explosions and outcries in the cities on the plain; red revolt springing up and being suppressed in blood; battle swaying hither and thither; patient astronomers in observatory towers picking out and christening new stars; plays being performed in lighted theatres; people being carried into hospitals on stretchers, and all the usual turmoil and agitation of men's lives in crowded centers. Up in Will's valley only the winds and seasons made an epoch; the fish hung in the swift stream; the birds circled overhead; the pine tops rustled underneath the stars; the tall hills stood over all; and Will went to and fro, minding his waterside inn, until the snow began to thicken on his head. His heart was young and vigorous, and if his pulses kept a sober time they still beat strong and steady in his wrists. He carried a ruddy stain on either cheek, like a ripe apple; he stooped a little, but his step was still firm, and his sinewy hands were reached out to all men with a friendly pressure. His face was covered with those wrinkles which are got in open air, and which, rightly looked at, are no more than a sort of permanent sunburning; such wrinkles heighten the stupidity of stupid faces, but to a person like Will, with his clear eyes and smiling mouth, only give another charm by testifying to a simple and easy life. His talk was full of wise sayings. He had a taste for other people, and other people had a taste for him. When the valley was full of tourists in the season, there were merry nights in Will's arbor; and his views, which seemed whimsical to his neighbors, were often admired by learned people out of town and colleges. Indeed, he had a very noble old age, and grew daily better known; so that his fame was heard of in the cities of the plain; and young men who had been summer travelers spoke together in cafes of Will o' the Mill and his rough philosophy. Many and many an invitation, you may be sure, he had, but nothing could tempt him from his upland valley. He would shake his head and smile over his tobacco pipe with a deal of meaning. "You come too late," he would answer. "I am a dead man now; I have lived and died already. Fifty years ago you would have brought my heart into my mouth; and now you do not even tempt me. But that is the object of long living, that man should cease to care about life." And again: "There is only one difference between a long life and a good dinner: that, in the dinner, the sweets come last." Or once more: "When I was a boy, I was a bit puzzled, and hardly knew whether it was myself or the world that was curious and worth looking into. Now, I know it is myself, and stick to that."

He never showed any symptoms of frailty, but kept stalwart and firm to the last; but they say he grew less talkative toward the end, and would listen to other people by the hour in an amused and sympathetic silence. Only, when he did speak it was more to the point, and more charged with old experience. He drank a bottle of wine gladly; above all, at sunset on the hilltop or quite late at night under the stars in the arbor. The sight of something attractive and unattainable seasoned his enjoyment, he would say; and he professed he had lived long enough to admire a candle all the more when he could compare it with a planet.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief. *

It is understood that J. J. Holland, the well known boat builder of Tacoma, has been asked by the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, to prepare plans for two splendid screw steamships to run in the summer time between Tacoma and Alaskan ports and in the winter time between Tacoma and the Hawaiian Islands. It is probable that the boats will be built and in running order before many months.

Criminal Libel.

The Associated Press correspondent, who is popularly supposed to enjoy the confidence of Prof. Menzies, has telegraphed abroad that the "Prof. will proceed against his traducers" for criminal libel as soon as he has established his innocence. To the traducers this is not encouraging, provided the Prof. can establish his innocence. The threat is conditional. So far as THE TIMES is concerned it does not believe the Prof. will get himself involved in a libel suit with newspapers. It is very hard to get any money out of the papers for character, and then these papers know a good deal of what is going on in the world and sometimes publish whole histories of men's lives. Besides, the "Prof." has a peck of trouble on hand already. There is only his friend in the Colonist office who will go surety for him. The case comes up in the police court again to-morrow and as it progresses the TIMES will endeavor to keep the public posted. Till the trial is fully completed it is to be hoped, for the sake of decency, that our morning contemporary will not interfere and endeavor to create a false sympathy.

Nanaimo News Notes

The Foresters have prepared a long list of sports and games peculiar to Forestry for their re-union at Nanaimo on the 11th inst.

A window of Mr. Langton's general store at Nanaimo was broken by burglers on Saturday night and a watch stolen.

A young daughter of Mr A Cowie had her collar bone broken yesterday by a blow from a horse. The parents were moving into their new house on Irwin street, and the children were taking some small things in their hands. The little girl was in the act of passing the fence at the corner of Irwin and Finlayson streets, when a horse, which was being chased by a couple of boys, jumped over her. One of the hind feet of the horse struck the child in the shoulder. Dr Praeger set the fractured bone.

Church Services in Victoria West

From the North.

Steamship George W. Elder arrived from Alaska at 10 o'clock this morning, after a fine trip. The weather was pleasant during the whole voyage and no rain fell until yesterday. There is no news of importance. The fisheries are doing well. From all accounts the excursionists are much pleased with the trip and the treatment received at the hands of the officers of the Elder.

The Late Archbishop.

Information was received to-day by the Sisters of St. Ann's Convent, that the remains of the late Archbishop Seghers will arrive in this city on the American revenue cutter Bear, on or about October 13th next. The letter was written by the Sisters who left this city some time ago for the Youkon. Three Sisters of Charity arrived at their destination safely.

Stealing Flowers.

Residents of Fisgard street above Douglas are complaining about Chinamen stealing flowers and plants from their gardens. The thieves steal the flowers about daylight every morning. Two Chinese women were seen stealing flowers a few mornings ago. The police should attend to them.

Quick Time.

Messrs. Angus & Gordon last night received a car load of sugar from Montreal via the C. P. R., in thirteen days. This is remarkably fast time and proves the capacity of the road to transport freight across the continent in shorter time than any of the great through lines.

Thief Foiled.

A burglar attempted to break into Mr. T. G. Simpson's residence on Johnson street last night. The noise made by the sneak thief awakened Mr. Simpson and he saw the burglar making tracks out of the gate and down the street.

The horses which are to run at the driving park on Saturday are McAbee's "Bethel," O'kanagan; Lacelles' "Mayflower," Victoria; Castel's "Royal," Nanaimo; Campbell's "Sleepy Tom," Seattle; Graham's "Dasher," Seattle. These are undoubtedly the best five race horses which have ever been in the city and the result of their meeting is looked forward to with great interest. All are in good condition. As has been already stated the race is for a citizens purse of $150 and the $25 entrance money of each horse added. The admittance to the park will be free.

GOOD SHOOTING.

The best rifle shooting ever done in an army contest in the United States was witnessed at the Presidio on June 28th, in the preliminary shoot to determine who shall represent California at the coming division contest at Vancouver. This distinction was won by Lieutenant D E Holley, First Infantry. His score is regarded as being quite remarkable, being as follows: 45 out of a possible 50 points at 200 yards, 48 at 500 yards, 43 at 600 yards, and 42 at 600 yards, or 178 out of a possible 200. This makes him champion of the army in competition shooting.

FORTY PER CENT.

Amount Which the P. O. Employees' Salaries are Reduced.

Up to the present the employees of the civil service in British Columbia have been allowed forty per cent. over and above the salaries of those of the older provinces in consideration of the increased cost of living here. The allowance was made as a matter of justice, and to encourage responsible young men to enter and remain in the service. On Saturday last the clerks in the post office were informed that this allowance had been discontinued and as a matter of course a furore has been created among them and their friends over it. The new order it is understood affects all hands, from the highest clerks down to the lowest. The difference made in the salaries of some of them is $25 per month, in other cases $20, $18 and so on down. They have been informed that the forty per cent would be paid as usual so soon as the matter was submitted to the executive council, but there is good reason to believe that the Federal Government are about to play the same game as they did in Winnipeg some time ago. The same thing was done there. The forty per cent allowance for extra cost of living was withheld altogether, but the matter was taken up so actively by the press and the political associations of the city that the government found it necessary to effect a compromise which they did by paying 25 per cent. in lieu of 40 per cent. To show what idea the department has of justice in this case, the messenger is reduced to $29 per month and of course, with his munificent salary, he is expected to live honestly. It is freely intimated by the clerks that unless they are restored to their former salaries at once the whole staff will strike. The representatives of the province will no doubt do their best to have the matter satisfactorily arranged, and to obtain justice for the province. The public should also demand that the hard worked but obliging post office employees receive their rights.

End of the Holidays.

The public schools of the province will re-open after the midsummer holidays, on Monday morning next. The new term will find the schools in pretty much the same hands as at the end of the school year. Compared with previous years the number of vacant schools have been few, most of last year's teachers going back to their old stamping grounds. With one or two exceptions none are leaving the profession and none of the better positions becoming vacant there have been scarcely any promotions. The fact that few changes have taken place indicates that parent and teacher are satisfied with each other and are getting along well together. At the examination just closed the proportion of successful candidates was much greater than usual. Many of these were new arrivals in the province, but among the number were several from our high schools. Victoria high school it is understood sent up nineteen pupils for examination all of which appear on the list of successful ones from the higher grades down. This is a most enviable record. It shows that some excellent work is being done and is highly complimentary to all concerned.

For the North.

The steamer Boscowitz, Capt. Williams, will leave for the north this evening. She has a good freight and a few passengers. Among the latter are Mr R P Dodd and wife, for Fort Simpson, and Mr. Tuck, C E, for Naas river. A party of men also go up to a wreck on Prince of Wales Island.

Three Courts.

This has been an active day in legal circles, three courts sitting at James Bay at the same time. Mr. Justice Walkem held county court with some twenty or thirty cases to dispose of; Mr. Justice Gray tried O'Reilly under the Speedy Trials Act, and Mr. Justice Crease heard the case of Turner vs. Prevost.

The news has just reached Montreal of the death in China of Dr. William Young, a young physician of that city, who left there in 1878 to practice in Hongkong.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

Boycotting a Lawyer—Chinese—A Sweet Smelling Senator.

There is no dodge or art in the tricks of trade but the wily "John Chinaman" is not up to. Now they have followed the steps of "Paddy," but instead of boycotting landlords, they have attacked the person of the lawyers. The great Wall of China has proved vulnerable to the inroads of these hordes, and although the substance of which that structure is composed contains a good percentage of British pluck and grit, yet it may be forced to crumble into dust before the artful dodges of the almond-eyed Celestials. There may be other attempts in other directions of a similar nature, and the question naturally arises how are the employers of Chinese labor prepared to meet the difficulty? On reading the interview with Mr. Brereton, agent of the Duke of Sutherland, the thought came up would it not be infinitely better could our labor and help market be supplied by people of our own race and color? Crofter, and other laboring classes would gladly throng to our shores were inducements held forth, or means adopted to bring the advantages of Victoria, as a labor market, before the emigrating class at home. Not, however, by stating that female servants can demand from $20 to $25 per month, which is not the case; although that class of help can demand as much and more east of the Rockies where they are not subject to Chinese competitition. Now, supposing we substitute Crofter or other labor for that of Chinese. We would in the former have all the earnings either spent or invested in the city—not carried away to another country. Our stores, our manufactures would all benefit, while the moral and social tone would receive untold advantages. The baneful effects of a proximity to the debasing influences, practices and customs of our Chinese population are only too apparent in our midst, and are too serious to be lightly dealt with. Oriental indifference, indolence and morality is plainly visible. What the effect would be on our social life in having a virtuous people living in our midst instead of the Chinese is easy to contemplate. The Major hopes that all the Chinese will not only boycott the lawyers, but also the parsons, the doctors the philanthropists and moralists of Victoria, and thus prove to them that they are boss of the labor situation. It will require some great social convulsion to even start the very idea of a great and radical change in our social condition.

Does not the Council know that the tension of public feeling and patience is contracted enough without waiting for any other kind of rods? Patience is a virtue, but sometimes not all the tension rods in Victoria will keep it from bursting.

Let the sewers—if you are going to build them—by contract. Insist on the employment of white labor exclusively. Recollect, gentlemen of the Council, that eyes are on you, watching your every action. Majors, colonels, corporals, spirits, doctors and ex-councillors, the latter particularly will have their say and promulgate it too. So should you wish still to remain Vicar of Bray you had better look out for squalls.

Councillor Powell, what has become of your motion about the Chinese bagnios; has the influence reached you too? The step was a bold one; you should have followed it up. Try again. The heart may have been willing but the flesh is weak. The best of good intentions sometimes fail.

So Perley, M P for East Assiniboia, has been made a constant Shader of Conchon! The smell in this instance cut does yours; it not only reaches to heaven but also to other regions not so elevated and in an opposite direction. Mr. Crow Baker, M P, don't sully your fair reputation by becoming one of them. Pitch ambition to the winds. You stand well with all even to your bitterest political opponents; preserve your honor!

Dullness pervades everywhere, from the City Council even to

THE TOWN MAJOR.

Mr Ben Young, the "salmon king," came down on the Rithet yesterday.

Major Dupont and Miss Dupont returned from Vancouver last night.

Mr John Forsythe, of Seattle, came over on a visit to friends in the city yesterday.

Capt Adam has been appointed master of the steamship Sardonyx and will make his first trip to the north, leaving this evening.

Mr Alex McDonald, District Deputy of the Province of British Columbia, left this morning for New Westminster to organize another branch of the Young Man's Institute.

The Wellington School Trustee Board has appointed Mr James C McKay, late of the Boundary Public School, principal of the Wellington schools, vice Mr. Stainburn, resigned.

Mr G W Taylor, of Fort Wrangel, arrived down on the Geo W Elder to-day. He will leave for Portland in a few days to recruit his health which has not been satisfactory for some time.

Mr Geo Buckham, of New York, and party, returned from Alaska to-day. He is very enthusiastic about the pleasures of the trip, and thinks when it becomes better known much of the travel that now goes to Europe will be diverted to the North Pacific.

SUPREME COURT.

[Before His Lordship Justice Gray.]

Harry O'Rielly was tried this morning under the Speedy Trials Act on a charge of entering St. Ann's Convent for the purpose of stealing therefrom.

Mr. P. A. E. Irving, Deputy Attorney-General appeared for the prosecution; Mr. W. J. Taylor, of Messrs. Eberts & Taylor, defended the prisoner. After taking evidence which already appeared in the TIMES the prisoner was acquitted.

He was immediately re-arrested on a charge of assaulting Selina Fortin and will be tried in the police court to-morrow morning.

Northern Fisheries.

Mr. G. W. Taylor informs us that at Salmon Bay seven hundred barrels of salt salmon have been put up, and the Aberdeen Canning Company had secured 7,000 cases on Saturday last. The run will continue several weeks yet, and this company expect to put up over 10,000 cases.

Miss Weeden's Adieu.

Miss Weeden takes this method of bidding the people who entertained her in Victoria and vicinity, together with all who contributed to help build the Temperance Temple, adieu and God speed. Two hundred and twenty-two children and babies of Victoria, and one hundred and fourteen in Nanaimo and Wellington, contributed ten cents or more each. Hon. John Robson contributed $5, and Mrs. C. McLellan the same amount, and some other little contributions were given, so that from Victoria, B. C., $48 40 were contributed to help build the memorial structure of the century, to educate the world in the principles of total abstinence and the prohibition of the liquor traffic. None of them will miss what they have given, and when the temple shall stand complete Shall in its grand conception rise.
